NEWS OF THIS VICINITY

PITTSBURGH.

The citizens advisory sub-committee and Messrs. Donnelly, Reap, Clifford, Lynott and Mangum, a committee of the town council, met in joint session in the town hall Tuesday evening to discuss the paving question in all its phases. The following members of the advisory committee were present: Messrs. Harding, Bryden, Fitzpatrick, Abbott, Drury, Bohann, Brown and Steinmeyer. Several of the councilmen spoke in the manner of laymen vituperated brick and mortar. Their arguments were based on observations made while on the famous junketing expedition around the different cities. After a prolonged discussion of the question the citizens' committee approved of the action of the borough council in awarding the Barber Asphalt company the contract of paving Main and Water streets. Under the decision recently rendered by Judge Woodward the borough council cannot execute a contract for such an amount as they wished for, as the greatest debt the borough can incur in excess of its present liabilities is about $32,000. In order to make up the difference necessary to proceed with the work it will be necessary for the property owners fronting on the streets named to make a separate contract with the Barber company, thereby agreeing to subscribe the amount required. The soliciting committee will at once call upon each property owner and, if possible, obtain their consent. How successful this will be is the most conjectured, but if the decided preference for brick as heretofore expressed continues, it is not a wild prediction to state that the project of having asphalt pave our streets is as far off as ever.

After continuous residence in this place for twenty-one years, George L. Houser and his estimable family will, today, take final leave of their many friends by departing for Bethlehem, where Mr. Houser's headquarters now are.

The funeral of young Tierney, of Port Griffith, who died from being shot by flying coal in No. 14 shaft on Monday, occurred yesterday afternoon and was one of the largest held in this place in a long time. Friends from all parts of the valley were present in large numbers. Interment was made in Market Street cemetery.

The foot ball game between the Pittston Athletic club and Carbondale eleven, on Thanksgiving Day, will take place at 10 a. m. instead of 2 p. m. as previously announced. The team will meet for practice Friday evening.

The funeral of Mrs. James Walsh, of Duryea, took place yesterday morning at St. John's church, Pittston, where a solemn high mass was celebrated. Revs. M. J. Kelley officiating and celebrating. William Brehl deacon, and J. P. Greene as sub-deacon. A choir of young girls from the academy sang the Gregorian mass.

The traction company have commenced the laying of tracks on Parsonsage street.

The foot ball teams of the West Pittston high school and the Harry Hillman academy, Wilkes-Barre, will play at West Side park on Saturday, beginning at 4 p. m.

George Martin, who shot his mother on Monday night, as related heretofore in The Tribune, was taken before Squire Misko, at Duryea, Tuesday evening by Constable Bennett, who was charged with felonious wounding and attempting to kill. Chief of Police Loftus appeared as prosecutor. After hearing the evidence, the squire committed Martin to the county jail to await the results of his mother's injuries.

TUNKHANNOCK.

Lake Winola people are speculating upon the chances of an electric line from Coxton to Tunkhannock via the lake. They would have it take in Newton Center and the other little hamlets down that way, and claim the route is feasible. As yet there is no enthusiasm in the project at this end of the line.

Whooping cough and chicken pox are making inroads upon the attendance at the borough schools.
The death of Hon. M. B. Wright was a shock to his friends here. Hon. W. N. Reynolds was apprised of it by telegram immediately after the sad occurrence. His name is suggested on the street as a possible successor.
Rodney J. Hardwell, the rising young attorney who was admitted to the bar here this week, is one of Tunkhannock's brightest young men. He is popular in social circles, and is being congratulated on having acquired the title of "bachelor."

A case in court that has occupied a good deal of time and attracted considerable attention is a commonwealth suit against one Abram Ryman, of Monroe township, for shooting a bull. Ryman was crossing a field with a gun on his shoulder when Taurus charged down upon him full tilt. Ryman brought his gun to bear and brought the animal to his knees. The former then took to his heels. There had been some bad blood previously between Ryman and the owner of the bull, and as the animal still lives, the jury rendered a verdict not guilty but divided the coats between the plaintiff and defendant.
Miss Anna Cullingworth, of Chester, Pa., is visiting friends here. She is a beautiful singer and is always in good demand in church choirs, at concerts and socials.
Mildred, the 13-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. John Donley, died of whooping cough Tuesday evening. The funeral will be held at 2 p. m. today, with interment at Sunnyside cemetery.

Dr. W. D. Lusk, of Montrose, is in town. Philo McDonald, while working on the new brick block on Main street today, had the misfortune to fall and get his hip dislocated. He was carried to the office of Dr. Lamb and made comfortable until a carriage was procured and he was taken to his home at Dalbois, where the hip was set. He is now doing well.

HONESDALE.

Mrs. Martin Hahn died at the home of her son, Leopold Hahn, at Seelyville, Tuesday, aged 59 years. She is survived by seven children, Mrs. August Olson, Dunmore; Mrs. William Gleichen, Moscow, Pa.; George and Jacob Hahn, Stewart, Neb.; Mrs. Fred Hirt and Mrs. John Thomas, Honesdale, and Leopold Hahn, Seelyville. The funeral will be held from the home of Leopold Hahn at 2 p. m. today. Rev. William Schmidt officiating. Interment in Glen Dyberry cemetery.

A team of horses owned by Mr. Ross ran away here yesterday morning. Mr. Ross was loading coal on his wagon at the Hudson and Hudson chutes when a car of coal was dumped in the pockets above and the horses made a dash for the main street. A small boy was in the wagon with Mr. Ross, and as the lines had fallen to the ground there seemed no way to stop the team. Mr. Ross put down the brake and held it until the horses were stopped in the upper part of the town.

"I had a poor appetite, that tired feeling and was run down, but Hood's Sarsaparilla had done a great deal of good. I have a better appetite and do not feel tired. I can recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla as the best spring or fall medicine to keep the blood in order. Myself and three daughters have taken over six bottles, and it has done us much good. We do not now have to call upon a doctor, as formerly, in the spring time, and I can say that Hood's Sarsaparilla is all that is claimed for it. I most heartily recommend it, and shall always keep it in my house." ALBERT KESSEY, Auburn, Pa.
